

#BeAnAdvocate

Advocacy Week

February 26 - March 2, 2018

Film Screening: Migrant Dreams

Migrant farm workers resist exploitation in small-town Ontario.

Every morning from 8-10am

RLLC, Ideas Visualization Lounge

Remember I Resist I Redraw:

A Radical History Poster Project

Thirteen posters by a diverse network of artists and writers committed to promoting art, activism, and a version of Canadian history that includes Indigenous peoples, women, workers, and others who are often marginalized or made invisible in mainstream historical accounts.

Monday, February 26 + Friday, March 2 from 10am-2pm on Main Street

MRU Board of Governors Meeting

Introduce yourself to the new Board. Let's tell them who we are, and what we need. #BeAnAdvocate.

Monday, February 26 at 3pm

EC2010

Film Screening: 'Junct: The Trashing of Higher Ed. in America

Contract faculty are living in poverty. Students are buried in debt. Featuring a conversation with the filmmakers via a Google Hangouts.

Tuesday, February 27 from 2-4pm

RLLC, Ideas Visualization Lounge

The Taxing Work of Debating the Provincial Budget

A more progressive tax structure can provide stable, sustainable funding for PSE in Alberta. Learn how, why, and how to #BeAnAdvocate.

Friday, March 2 at 8:30am

Faculty Centre

MRFA Regular Meeting

On the agenda: A discussion of updated standing advocacy goal proposals and a visit from Alberta Federation of Labour President Gil McGowan.

Friday, March 2 from 10am-12pm

Lincoln Park Room

MRFA Social Event:

Transitioning to a Union Culture

MRU faculty are invited to discuss the transition to life under the new Labour Code.

How is a union different from an association, and what does it mean for us?

Friday, March 2 at 4pm

Faculty Centre (faculty only, please)

#BeAnAdvocate
#ABPSE #ABPOLI

mrfa
mount royal faculty association