15.3.6 If either party indicates a wish to proceed with a three-person enhanced mediation process, each party will forthwith select a person to act as its appointee as a member of the mediation panel and advise the other party of the selection. The parties agree to select members of the panel who are available on any pre-selected date for the enhanced mediation.

15.3.7 The process for selecting a mediator or a chair for the mediation panel shall be as follows:

15.3.7.1 Each party shall submit to the other party the names of three (3) candidates for the mediator; and 15.3.7.2 The legal counsel for each of the two parties shall review the names and agree upon the choice of a mediator from the names submitted, taking into account the principles of mediation set out above.

15.3.7.3 If, for any reason, this selection process fails, either party may apply to the Chair of the Alberta Labour Relations Board for the appointment of a suitable mediator. If a party fails to appoint a person to a three-person panel once a three-person panel has been selected, the Chair of the Labour Relations Board may appoint a suitable person.

15.3.8 Four weeks prior to the scheduled mediation, the parties will agree upon a package of information materials to be submitted to the mediator for review in advance of the scheduled date for the mediation.

- 15.3.9 Each party will prepare a submission in writing outlining its position on the items in dispute. Copies of the submissions will be provided to the mediator and the other party at least two weeks prior to the scheduled date for the mediation.
- 15.3.10 The mediator will meet with the parties at the scheduled time for the purpose of hearing their presentations on the items in dispute. After those presentations, the mediator will meet with the parties during the mediation and make efforts to find mutually agreeable solutions to the issues in dispute. The mediator shall establish the procedures to be followed, providing opportunities for the parties to present such arguments and information as may be necessary to resolve the items in dispute.
- 15.3.11 If the mediator is unable to affect a settlement, the mediator shall issue a report to the parties with recommendations for settlement. If the parties choose a mediation panel, the panel will endeavour to provide the parties with a unanimous recommendation, but failing that, the recommendation of the chair will be the recommendation of the panel.
- 15.3.12 The mediator's report will be delivered to the parties at the same time, within 10 days from the close of the mediation session.
- 15.3.13 The mediator's report is not binding on either party.
- 15.3.14 If both parties accept the mediator's recommended terms of settlement, they shall promptly conclude negotiations and execute an agreement pursuant to such terms.
- 15.3.15 The two parties shall share the cost of the mediator or the chair of the mediation panel equally, subject to Article 15.3.5 above.
- 15.3.16 If, following enhanced mediation and receipt of the mediator's report and recommendations, the parties have not entered into a revised Collective Agreement, then the parties shall engage in Free Collective Bargaining as set out below.
