

MRFA At-a-Glance 2021-2022

Progressive educators pursuing excellence.

Mission: The Mount Royal Faculty Association provides a collective voice for faculty, promotes tenure and academic freedom, advocates for the highest standards of professionalism in higher education, and upholds the values of diversity, equity and human rights.

Membership & Mandate: The MRFA represents approximately 800 academic staff members at Mount Royal University. All full-time, limited-term and contract faculty teaching credit courses are members of the MRFA. In accordance with Alberta's Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA) and as a trade union under Alberta's Labour Relations Code, the MRFA's core mandate is to negotiate the Collective Agreement and resolve alleged contraventions of the Agreement through the grievance process. Additionally, as mandated by its members through the Association's Bylaws, the MRFA is a professional organization that promotes the professional standing of its members, advocates for the highest standards of professionalism in higher education, fosters the faculty voice in the shared academic governance of MRU, advocates for high quality, accessible and affordable post-secondary education, promotes tenure and academic freedom, and upholds the values of equity, diversity, inclusion and human rights.

Current Executive Board:

President: Lee Easton (English, Languages and Cultures & General Education); serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the Association and is the first contact for concerns or questions about the Collective Agreement and faculty welfare; liaison with senior administration of the university; and is the MRFA's representative to CAUT and CAFA.

Vice-President Negotiations: Kirk Niergarth (Humanities); serves on the Negotiating Committee, is the liaison between the Executive Board and the Negotiating Committee, and sits on the Grievance Committee.

Vice-President Policy and Senior Grievance Officer: Kelly Sundberg (Economics, Justice, and Policy Studies); monitors University policies, processes step 1 grievances, and assists the MRFA President and Labour Relations Officer as needed

Contract Faculty Representative: Brenda Lang (General Management and Human Resources); facilitates communication between the Association and contract members, corresponds with appropriate groups regarding contract faculty concerns, and serves on the Negotiating Committee.

Diversity and Equity Officer: Milena Radzikowska (Information Design) assists the Association in matters pertaining to principles and best practices in building a more equitable, diverse and inclusive faculty, academic, and institutional community.

Advocacy Officer: Marc Schroeder (Mathematics and Computing); facilitates the development of Advocacy initiatives in accordance with Association documents and liaises with other groups as appropriate in facilitating internal and external advocacy initiatives

Communications Officer: Vacant; develops strategic communications in coordination with the Sr. Administrative and Faculty Relations Officer, the Communications Committee, Department Liaisons and the Executive.

Academic Liaison Officer: Peter Ryan (Public Relations); liaises among Faculty Councils and GFC and facilitates the exchange of information related to academic governance, academic policy, and the Collective Agreement.

Treasurer: Rafik Kurji (Accounting); facilitates the maintenance of accurate financial records, financial statements of the transactions of the Association, and reporting to the membership regarding finances.

Member Engagement Officer: Roberta Lexier (General Education) Chairs the Member Engagement Committee, facilitates member outreach initiatives, coordinates and Tenure and Promotion Support Program, and encourages member participation in the Association through nomination processes.
