Faculty Centre Television Policy

Category: Faculty Centre Policy
Review Cycle: Last revision: 2025 Next Revision: 2028
Policy Sponsor: Member Engagement Officer

I. Overview

The faculty centre television is intended for professional use only during regular hours.

At all times, staff and members using the television shall use their professional discretion regarding viewing content and volume.

II. Limitations

Use of the television shall normally be limited to displaying the following:

- a. digital copies of posters and flyers, in accordance with the Communications policy, when the television is not otherwise in use,
- b. presentations for events being held in the centre, and
- c. news coverage with a significant impact on PSE, such as Faculty Associations' job action, elections, or budgets. If deemed appropriate, on the rare occasion when this coverage is displayed on the television, it may be muted and close captioned to ensure minimal disruption to members using the centre.

III. Authority

MRFA staff are responsible for ensuring proper use of the television at all times.

IV. Related Committee

Concerns about content displayed on the TV and/or volume levels may be sent to office@mrfa.net, and complaints may be submitted via the Operational Complaint Form.
