

MRFA Communications: Where to look for the info. you need

Communications Consent

To have access to all MRFA Communications, you need to first submit a communications consent form. This form is available here. This consent is required under Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation (CASL).

~Thank you for taking the time to submit this form~

Regular Communications

Weekly Bulletins

The MRFA sends out a weekly bulletin to all members of the Association who have opted in to receiving communications from the MRFA. These bulletins provide important MRFA updates and summarize upcoming events and announcements that would be of interest to our members. Previous issues of the Weekly bulletin are available here. If you are a member and are not receiving the bulletin that is likely because you have not yet opted in to receiving communications from the MRFA. Please fill out and submit a MRFA CASL Consent Form.

Faculty Forum

The MRFA's Faculty Forum is an occasional digital publication sent to all members of the Association. It includes MRFA news, articles on MRU issues currently relevant to MRFA members, and highlights stories about Post-Secondary Education in Canada. Previous issues of the Faculty Forum are available here.

Individual Emails

Individual emails are sent to members for MRFA meeting and event announcements as well as important information and/or updates from the MRFA President and other elected MRFA Officers.

Website

The website has a lot of information you will find useful at various points. Some useful sections you may want easy access to are listed below.
