MRFA
MOUNT ROYAL
FACULTY ASSOCIATION

Welcome to YOUR Association

" Progressive Educators Pursuing Excellence "

Established in 1966, MRFA now represents almost 800 full-time and contract academic faculty

You can find us on-line at <https://mrfa.net>

We provide you with:

- services including representation in collective bargaining, grievances and accommodations
- opportunities to make personal connections, build your community and to empower you as a faculty member

Making Connections

The MRFA prides itself in helping you make connections with other faculty across the University and providing support when you need it.

- Regular Professional Development Workshops
- Frequent Association Meetings including the Annual General Meeting
- Accommodation requests and grievances

The Association is here for you!

Building Community

The MRFA offers opportunities to engage with the University community

- MRFA 2025: Building an Equitable, Diverse and Inclusive Association
- Regular social events including weekly Friday MRFA night
- MRFA Committees (openings available and contract faculty welcome!)
- Lunch at the MRFA Bistro (we also do on-line orders and takeaway)

Empowering Faculty

The MRFA is committing to empowering its members through its support of

- Collective Bargaining
- Bicameral Governance
 - General Faculties Council, Faculty Councils and the Board of Governors
- Member-directed Interest Groups
- The MRFA Advocacy Committee
- The MRU Coalition (MRFA, MRSA and SAMRU)

The MRFA is an active member of

- The Confederation of Alberta Faculty Associations (CAFA)
- Canadian Association of University Teachers
